STITCH-AND-CHATTER CLUB IN ALL-DAY JOLLIFICATION

FREDERICKSBURG, VA., July 9.—The Stitch and Chatter Club, composed of a number of progressive farmers and housekeepers in Spotsylvania County, held their semi-annual all-day meeting by celebrating the Fourth with a big picnic at Lake View Farm, home of J. J. Dice, at Thorsburg, in Spotsylvania County.

A big dinner was the main feature, but fire works, boat riding, bathing and fishing were also enjoyed. Every one had all the other good things at a combination dinner. Many members and their guests were present.

Officers of the club were chosen as follows: Mrs. V. B. Pierce, president; Mrs. R. A. James, vice-president; Mrs. O. C. Zekiel, secretary and treasurer.

LIGHTNING BOLTS KILL 25 SHEEP AND 2 HORSES

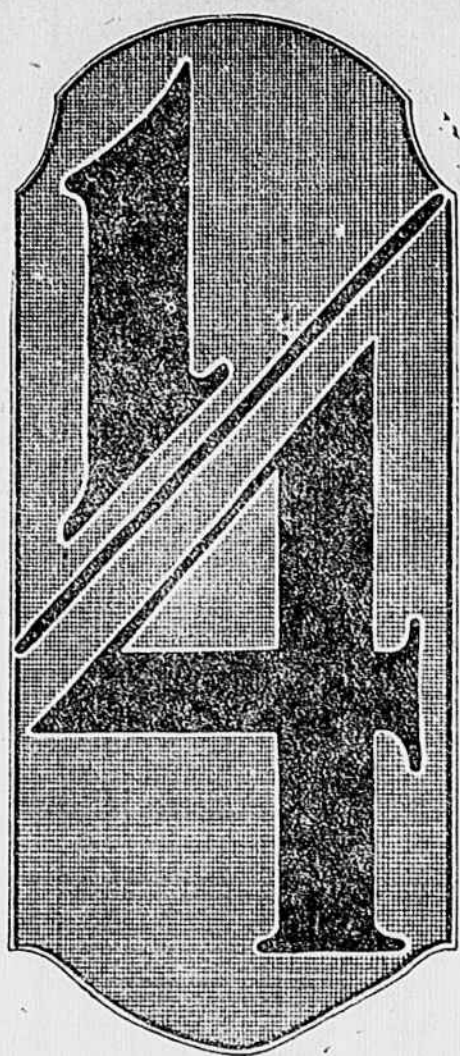

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
FREDERICKSBURG, VA., July 9.—During an electrical storm two horses belonging to colored men, were killed by lightning in King George County, and Lewis Ashton, a well-known farmer lost a flock of twenty-five sheep from the same cause.

Gets Eight Years on Murder Charge.
LYNCHBURG, VA., July 9.—Hoywood Fortune, white, was convicted in the Corporation Court here yesterday of the murder of John J. Bays, negro, and his punishment was fixed at eight years in the penitentiary. The verdict came after fourteen hours work by the jury. Motion for new trial will be argued Saturday. Fortune pleaded self-defense. A former jury resulted in a mistrial.

Will Bridge James at Snowden.
LYNCHBURG, VA., July 9.—The State Highway Department has let contract to J. E. Lane & Co. of Atlanta, for the erection of a steel bridge over the James River at Snowden, and work will be started as soon as materials can be assembled. The bridge is a part of the Lynchburg-Natural Bridge highway, which will form a connection between the roads of North Carolina and the Valley pike.

Disapproves Mellon's Attitude.
LYNCHBURG, VA., July 9.—The local post, American Legion, has named a committee to draw resolutions to report at the next meeting disapproving the opposition of Secretary Melan to the soldier bonus bill. R. Chase McGhee, David Weinstein and L. W. McWane constitute the special committee.

Make Special Dates for Lynchburg.
LYNCHBURG, VA., July 9.—A Lee Trinkle and Harry St. George Tucker will make addresses here furthering their campaigns for nomination for Governor, Mr. Trinkle coming July 15 and Mr. Tucker July 30. Both addresses are to be made at the City Auditorium.

Phillip Levy's Annual Bed and Bedding Sale

Save You 1/4 to 1/3 on High Grade Beds, Springs and Mattresses

Phillip Levy's Annual Bed and Bedding Sale—dedicated to a better night's rest—is now in full swing. The splendid values found here now—in Beds, Springs and Mattresses—will do more than save you money—they give you the body-building sleep that you need—especially during the hot Summer months.

Beds, Springs and Mattresses—bought "right" wholesale—carloads at a time—for our stores in Norfolk, Richmond, Newport News, Roanoke, Savannah, Ga., and Washington, D. C. It goes without saying that we can buy for less—MUCH LESS—than the small one-store merchant who buys only 10 or 12 Beds at a time—and, buying for less, we can, of course, sell for less.

To add to the importance of the money-saving possibilities of this sale, every Bed included in this sale was purchased "wholesale" several months ago at prices far lower than the prevailing market. Sold on Easy Terms—even at the low prices listed below.

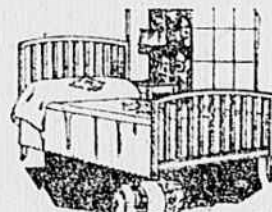

This sale includes Brass Beds, Steel Beds in beautiful wood and ivory finishes—as well as Wood Beds in the popular four-poster and period styles. No family needing a Bed now or later on can afford to overlook the special values offered during this sale.

America's finest hotels use wood finished Steel Beds

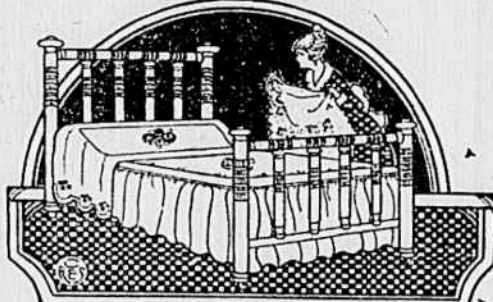

And here you'll find wood finished steel beds in either "twin" or double size—finished to match your bedroom furniture. Buy one now during this sale—on easy terms. Many priced so that you can
